Joshua Michaels is better known to most as simply Joshua, Iz or half of the DJ and production duo of Iz & Diz. Iz is a jack of all trades and has dabbled in many aspects of the music industry throughout the years. In addition to being a jet-setting DJ, a staple producer in the playlists of fellow DJs worldwide and being the head honcho behind the legendary Bionic parties in San Francisco, Joshua has also had a touring band that opened up for No Doubt, organized a community outreach program and is about to drop his new album on his label Vizual Records.

Based out of Chicago, Joshua has been DJing for 24 years and has over 300 production credits to his name for well-respected labels including Sony, Six Degrees, Prescription, Balance, Classic, Junior Boys Own, OM and Guidance. Recording under many pseudonyms including: Joshua, Circulation, J-Boom, C++, Free Energy, Stereo People, Dubwise and as Iz of Iz & Diz, his music and djing have brought him around the world, with residencies at Fabric (London), Bionic (San Francisco) and regular gigs all over the US, Canada and Europe, Australia and New Zealand. His debut album “It Iz What It Iz” is out now on Vizual Records. (Links to DJ Iz music below.)

Warm up DJs include Rob Chiong and Matt Blac.
