

Save The Date:

Improving the Health of Transgender People in Hawai'i

March 19, 2015
8:00 am – 12:00 noon
Queen's Conference Center
(1301 Punchbowl Street)

The conference objectives include:

- To educate the community about current health issues and barriers to care faced by transgender men and women
- To explore strategies for increasing health promotion behaviors amongst transgender men and women
- To enhance cross cultural, intra- and inter-state alliances and coalitions on transgender health issues.

Prospective Agenda

8:00 – 8:30 AM	Registration
8:30 – 9:30 AM	Transforming Healthcare for Transgender Men & Women C. Goshima, MD, Director, Hawaii AIDS Education & Training Center
9:30 – 10:30 AM	Living in Hawai'i: Challenges & Barriers
10:30 – 11:45 AM	Panel Discussion - A Path Forward
11:45 – 12:00 PM	Wrap-Up

Register at: <http://ht.ly/lewNB>

For disability accommodations and other questions, please email:
kpatrick@hawaii.edu

A Free Conference (parking is not validated)

Sponsored by:

Hawaii AIDS Education & Training Center

This program was funded by the Health Resources and Services Administration, HIV/AIDS Bureau, with the Pacific AIDS Education and Training Center, under contract/grant number H4AHA00058.

Parking & Venue Information

The Queen's Conference Center 510 South Beretania Street, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813

